

Product data sheet

Request Item

Article number: ILB0021 - PU 1

What is the purpose of the product inquiry?

A product inquiry in a shop system is useful to inform customers about special product details or individual price offers. This applies to items that are not in stock. It improves customer service, increases satisfaction, and helps the company better understand product demand and adjust the product range accordingly.

